

Biography for Michael Lin:

Michael is currently active in 4 NGOs seeking to make the world a better place and 2 companies, including his business consulting company, L and T Consulting. Previously, he spent 13 years as a partner at Marks&Clerk, Hong Kong, leading M&C's HK/China Chemical, Bio and Pharma Patent group handling international patent drafting, prosecution, and international due diligence, opinion work and client counseling in technical areas such as pharmaceuticals, material science, polymer chemistry, manufacturing, FMCG, computer systems, AI, etc.

Michael also was a Patent Senior Counsel at Procter & Gamble Co., set up P&G's Beijing Patent group and managed all Asian Patent matters for P&G's laundry and cleaning products, as well as oral care and foods (2008-10). Working for P&G in Beijing, China (2007-10), and Kobe, Japan from (1997-2007), Michael focused on holistic global IP strategies and Asian Patent matters related to licensing, patent drafting/filing, prosecution, due diligence/opinions, divestitures, mergers and acquisitions. At P&G, Michael handled patent matters in Australia, China, India, Japan, Korea, the Philippines and other Asian countries.

Michael Lin (B.A. Biochemistry, U.C Berkeley; J.D., Boston University) was such a terrible scientist that he had to become a lawyer. Michael is an Ohio, U.S.A. Attorney and is a USPTO Patent Attorney. Michael is an inventor, entrepreneur, mentor and a frequent speaker at law schools, business schools, and industry conferences.

See: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/michael-lin-b37b333/>