

Mr. Thomas Kwan
Managing Director, Corporate Finance of Odysseus Capital Asia

Mr.Kwan has been in the industry for more than 20 years and has extensive experience in the Greater China region.

Prior to joining Odysseus Capital, Thomas was a Director with PwC Corporate Finance Hong Kong in charge of M&A and fund-raising activities within the region. Thomas' expertise includes leading M&A transactions, both buy and sell-side, and fund raising projects and advisory services including deal origination, target identification, business strategy, structural and regulatory advice, and pricing and negotiation strategy.

Before joining PwC, Thomas was Vice President of OCBC Investment Banking Business based in Hong Kong responsible for IPO and M&A transactions. Prior to joining OCBC, Thomas was Senior Manager (Head of M&A Advisory, Southern China) of KPMG Corporate Finance. He was also Manager of Rabobank's M&A team in Hong Kong and previously worked at McKinsey & Co's Corporate Finance and Strategy practice.

Thomas graduated as a member of Beta, Gamma, Sigma of HKUST MBA program, and holds a BSc degree in Finance from the City University of Hong Kong. He holds a type 6 licence from the SFC in Hong Kong to advise on corporate finance transactions.