

Mr. William C.W. Lam is the Founding Partner and Managing Partner of Long An & Lam LLP. He was admitted as a solicitor in Hong Kong, England and Wales since 1991. Mr. Lam is also a China-Appointed Attesting Officer appointed by the Ministry of Judiciary of China since 2003.

Mr. Lam graduated from The Chinese University of Hong Kong and the University of London. He attended the University of Law in England before qualified in England and Wales.

Throughout his career, Mr. Lam has gained experience working in international law firm and multinational company. His experience mainly concentrates on non-contentious legal works, including M&A, IPO, joint-venture, PE funds formation, corporate restructuring and commercial legal services. In recent years, Mr. Lam also practices wealth management, including setting up of private trusts, family office and wealth management scheme.

Mr. Lam has served various committees of the Law Society of Hong Kong, including the Greater China Legal Affairs Committee, the Consents Committee, and the Solicitors' Disciplinary Tribunal. He is currently the Honorable Vice President of the Asia International Intellectual Properties Society.

---